How do we become more decisive? How do we get divine direction? What I want to talk about today is trusting God's process. Process can be painful to think about but trusting God's process is key in our decision-making as God's will unfolds for our lives. It does not happen overnight!

An uncommitted life is likely an unsuccessful life.

Four Steps in God’s Process and Direction:

1. The Spirit’s Prompting

   And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem... Acts 20:22a (NIV)

2. Certain Uncertainty

   And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. Acts 20:22 (NIV)

   Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path. Psalm 119:105 (NIV)

   Your word is a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path. Psalm 119:105 (NLT)

3. Predictable Resistance

   I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. Acts 20:23 (NIV)

   • “If you are not ready to face opposition for your obedience to God, you are not ready to be used by God.” - Craig Groeschel

4. Uncommon Confidence

   However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God’s grace. Acts 20:24 (NIV)
